

THE FUTURE OF ORGANIC SECTOR AT THE 2016 BIOFACH TRADE FAIR FOR ORGANIC FOOD

The 27th world's leading Trade Fair for Organic Food, BIOFACH, realized in Nuremberg (Germany) on 10-13 of February 2016, recorded 48,000 visitors from 132 countries. 2,544 exhibitors presented products and services to buyers from the food and cosmetics industries.

In 2015 the BIOFACH fair registered 2,141 exhibitors participating and 44,624 trade visitors from 130 countries.

The event is the appointment of the organic world to cultivate the change, where to meet and network with international guests coming from many countries. Every year, the exhibition gathers representatives from politics, associations, NGOs, opinion makers and figures of public interest. The Fair is an occasion to meet producers from the international organic market overall, promoting fresh and frozen food, grocery products, organic drinks and organic non-food products. In 2016 the exhibition areas was focused around the vegan, the olive oil and the wine.

The 2016 BIOFACH congress attracted more than 7,000 participants. The main visitor magnets were the BIOFACH Forum and the Politics Forum, which had above-average participant figures. The Congress is the BIOFACH platform for knowledge transfer, information exchange, discussion and opinion making about the newest research results and trends.

More and more customers are investing in organic food and natural cosmetics. Since 1990 BIOFACH is a leading event, yearly organized for positioning people from the organic sector on its international knowledge platform. The next BIOFACH fair will take place from 15 to 18 February 2017 in Nuremberg.
