

Premio NOVA

Premio Nacional de Innovación

The second edition of the National Innovation Award NOVA2011, organized by the National Agency for Innovation and Research (ANII) associated with ART/UNDP among others organizations, was launched on 21 June 2011.

The award aims to recognize the innovative capacity of Uruguayan companies and organizations in the following sectors: Services, Agribusiness, Industry, Export, Entrepreneurship, Information and Technology Communication (ICT), Human and Local Development and Public Interest. The award represents the promotion and dissemination of innovation, science and technology, as essential tools for the economic, social and productive development of territories.

For more information

National Innovation Award NOVA2011

National Agency for Innovation and Research \(ANII\)

ArtUruguay

Experiences presented to the 2009 National Innovation Competition on Human and Local Development