

The 2012 Carlos Slim Awards in Health - Human Capital and Institutional Development

The Carlos Slim Health Institute launched the 2012 Award to recognize individuals and institutions that are committed to improving the health of Latin American population and consequently, facilitate the generation of solutions through the research efforts, innovations in healthcare or development of effective implementation strategies and public goods. This acknowledgement seeks to promote the dissemination of successful health programs in Latin America.

The Carlos Slim Awards are granted annually in the following categories: Life Achievements in Research and Outstanding Institution. The prize for the first category intended generate a stronger relationship between research and the generation of solution to the problems faced by the populations. The second is awarded in recognition of successful health programmes that have demonstrated improvements in the health of populations of the region.

The nominations submission period is August 1 to October 28, 2011. Nomination details and requirements, as well as the nomination form can be found at the Carlos Slim Health Institute website www.salud.carlosslim.org.

To know more and participate

Carlos Slim Awards in Health

Call for Nominations