

Announced the Winning Projects of AGFUND International Prize 2011

The Arab Gulf Program for Development AGFUND has announced the winners of the AGFUND International Prize 2011 for Pioneering Human Development Projects, in the field of Empowering Youth through entrepreneurships and job opportunities. The following winners were selected out of 73 projects from 66 countries.

First category: prize for projects implemented by international organizations

- The winner is the Entra 21 Program implemented in 22 countries of Latin America and the Caribbean by the International youth Foundation \(IYF\). For more information: Entra 21.

Second category: prize for projects implemented by NGOs

- The winner is the Integrated Youth Employment Creation \(IYEC\) Project implemented in Sierra Leone by the Association Hands Empowering the Less Privileged in Sierra Leone \(HELP-SL\).

Third category: prize for projects implemented by governmental organizations

- The winner is the Zonal Center for Business Development implemented in Colombia by the Mayor's Office of Medellin. For more information: Zonal Center for Business Development CEDEZO

Fourth category: prize for individual initiatives

- The winner is the The Association of United Efforts \(ASUNEF\) implemented in Uganda by Mr. Tayebwa Allan. For more information: Association of United Efforts.

For more information

Winning projects AGFUND Prizes

www.agfund.org