

THE SCIENCE DAY ORGANIZED BY TP ORGANICS IN THE BIOFACH TRADE FAIR FOR ORGANIC FOOD

The European Technology Platform TP Organics participate in the 2019 edition of the BIOFACH - World's Leading Trade Fair for Organic Food organizing the TP Organics' Science Day.

The BIOFACH Trade Fair for Organic Food will take place in Nuremberg (Germany) from 13 to 16 February 2019 and the Science Day will be held from 10am to 3pm on February 15 in Room Oslo, NCC Ost.

The title of the 2019 Science Day is Research, Innovation and Knowledge Exchange - Challenges of the Organic Sector. The event will serve to discuss progress of TP Organics' new Strategic Research and Innovation Agenda which will be published at the end of this year. This new Agenda will be an important input to the preparations of Horizon Europe, the EU's Framework Program for Research and Innovation for the period 2021-2027.

In addition, the new Organic Farm Knowledge platform will be launched. The Organic Farm Knowledge platform provides access to a wide range of tools and resources related to organic farming. It promotes the exchange of knowledge among farmers, farm advisers, and scientists, with the aim of increasing productivity and quality in organic farming across Europe.

The policy debate, moderated by Bram Moeskops, Senior Scientific Coordinator of TP Organics, Hanns-Christoph Eiden, President Bundesanstalt für Landwirtschaft und Ernährung, and Alberto D'Avino, Deputy Head of Unit Research & Innovation, DG Agriculture and Rural Development, European Commission (TBC), will be a space to discuss how innovation and knowledge exchange between researchers, farmers, and food SMEs in the organic sector can be promoted.

TP Organics is the European Technology Platform (ETP) for organic food & farming, uniting large companies, small & medium enterprises, researchers, farmers, consumers and civil society organizations active in the organic value chain from production, input & supply, to food processing, marketing and consumption.
